

JESSICA LARMONY

Scouting Operations Manager

Detroit Lions

Jessica Larmony enters her sixth season with the Lions organization and fourth as scouting operations manager after being promoted to the position in 2018. She originally came to the Lions in 2016 as the team's community relations coordinator, where she managed the Detroit Lions Charities platform, including strategic planning, implementation and execution of programs, grant agreements and budget allocations for six Detroit area nonprofit partners

Prior to Detroit, Larmony spent three seasons at Western Michigan University, working in multiple roles within football operations. At Western Michigan, she began as the team's Director of Internal Football Operations (2013-14) before being named Director of Football Operations in 2014, at the time being the youngest person to hold that position in the program's history. Larmony also was one of three women in the country at the time to hold a Director of Football Operations position at the Division 1-A level. In her role, she oversaw every aspect of Western Michigan football's day-to-day logistics, including travel, recruiting, marketing, branding, and building renovations. Larmony lead the charge coordinating all logistics for the two-bowl games Western Michigan participated in during her time there, including the international Bahamas Bowl game in Nassau, Bahamas.

Larmony joined WMU's football staff after spending time (2010-13) with Rutgers football as a recruiting assistant, coordinating the team's recruiting visits, football camps, marketing/ branding efforts and serving as the primary manager of the team's recruiting database.

A St. Martin, French West Indies native, Larmony grew up in Perth Amboy, N.J. She earned her bachelor's degree in communications from Rutgers University and her master's in sports management from Western Michigan.

Larmony is a member of the Detroit Lions Employee Engagement committee which helps create opportunities to foster staff unity and is active in the Club's Diversity and Inclusion initiatives.
